

Passage:

Modern education systems have undoubtedly made significant strides in imparting knowledge and skills to students, but they often leave a major gap that hinders holistic development and preparedness for the complexities of life in the 21st century.

In modern world, Education systems play vital role in students life. But they lack in providing personal development to face challenges of life.

satisfactory

give title and word count too