

Preposition 2020-PMS

- 1) He is indifferent to his own interest.
- 2) He supplies the poor with clothing.
- 3) There is no exception to this rule.
- 4) I am not envious of his success.
- 5) He is inquired of the servant if his master was at home.
- 6) He promised not to do anything repugnant to the wishes of his parents.
- 7) He was born of humble parents.
- 8) The climate of Karachi does not agree with him.
- 9) He scoffed at the idea of revolution.

Correction 2011

clerk concerned

1) Please speak to the ~~concerned~~
~~clerk~~.

→ Please speak to the concern clerk.

2) You have got time too short for
that.

→ You have got very short time for
that.

3) Not only he was a thief, but he was also a murderer.

→ He was not only a thief but also a murderer.

4) They thought the plan would be
~~succeeded~~ successful

→ They thought the plan would succeed.

5) It is unlikely that he wins the race.

→ It is unlikely that he win the race.

6) My uncle has told me something about it yesterday.

→ My uncle told me something about it yesterday.

7) I hoped that by the time I would have got there it would have stopped raining.

→ I hoped that by the time I got there it would have stopped raining.

8) They prevented the driver to stop.

→ They prevented the driver from stopping.

Translation (PMS 2016)

Please include the original passage in the pdf.

The modern time experiencing the heights of educational development <sup>کی تعلیمی اور تعلیمی کے</sup> hallmarks of developed nations are the high educational standards. The curriculum and textbooks are the most important for the achievement of this purpose and to linked this with modern requirements shows the governmental priorities for the educational sector. The educational development and high standards are the basics for the high standard lifestyle. The government is making all the possible efforts to provide this standard. We hope that the young generation will play his role in the development of Pakistan

according to modern educational requirements.