

Educated Women can be the Change Agents for Pakistani Society.

I. Introduction

II. Absolutely, educated women in Pakistan can play a crucial role as change agents in society.

III. How educated women can be the change agents for Pakistani society?

A. Economic empowerment <sup>will be achieved</sup> due to educated women.

1. Financial independence and poverty alleviation.

2. Access to employment opportunities.

B. Social developments <sup>will be done</sup> because of educated women.

1. Promoting gender equality in society.

2. Challenging patriarchal norms and practices.

3. Advocacy for women's rights.

4. Community development and leadership.

C. Political <sup>will be</sup> influence <sup>increased</sup> <sup>owing</sup> to educated women.

1. Increased representation in legislative bodies.

2. Enhanced participation in electoral processes ✓

3. Gender sensitive policy making ✓

D. (Improved) Education system ↑ due to educated women. <sup>will be improved</sup>

Increased (Enhanced) educational

1. Women (separate) ↑ institutions ✓

2. Role models for young generation ✓

3. Improved literacy rate ✓

E. Health ↑ <sup>system will be</sup> improvement <sup>of</sup> because of educated women.

1. Advocacy (for) of health facilities for women. ✓

2. Controlled population growth by family planning. ✓

IV. Conclusion.

Educated women can be the Change Agents for Pakistani society.

"Education"

Seek education whether you have to go to China. Education plays an important role in the character building of nations as well as for individuals. It is important for both men and women. Educated women in Pakistan can play a crucial role in change agents in society. Economic empowerment can be achieved with the <sup>women's</sup> educated education. As they can empowered economy of Pakistan. Educated women lead to social developments in Pakistani society. They challenge patriarchal norms and practices, they promote gender equality in society. Political influence will be increased due to educated women in Pakistani society. Owing to them gender sensitive policies will be made. Education system will be improved owing to educated women, it will increase literacy rate of Pakistan. Separate educational institutions will be increased. Health system will be improved, they advocate for women's health facilities. (These) Educated women (will) can be the change agents for Pakistani society because the economic empowerment, social developments, improved education system and health system can be achieved <sup>in Pakistani society</sup> with educated women.

→ Conclusion.

Hence, it is concluded that educated women can be the changing agents for Pakistani society. So, it should be enhanced by encouraging the educated women and making them role models for young generation. Educated women can provide economic empowerment ~~of~~ Pakistan and social developments can also be done by providing education to women. Political influence will increase with educated women. Educated women lead to a welfare state. This must be promoted by government of Pakistan ~~to~~ <sup>for</sup> ~~achieve~~ "the" "2030" development. Educated women can provide solution for almost all the socio-economic and socio-political issues in Pakistani society. To achieve it, educated women should be encouraged "by providing (all the)" and be made ~~make~~ them role models for young generation.

Keep writing