

Population Situation of Pakistan and Its Impact on Development.

1) INTRODUCTION

Thesis Statement: Over the period of time, population situation of Pakistan has been worsening due to several factors: high fertility rate, lack of access to family planning services, cultural and religious beliefs, poverty and lack of education, urbanization and lack of government action. These factors pose severe ^{threats to} ~~impacts on~~ resources, environment, infrastructure, health sector and ~~social, political and cultural arenas.~~

2) Causes behind worst situation

- a. High fertility rate
- b. Lack of access to family planning services
- c. Cultural and religious beliefs
- d. poverty and lack of education
- e. Urbanization
- f. Political instability and lack of governance

3) Horrible Impacts on Development

- a. Strain on resources ✓
- b. Environmental degradation ✓
- c. Overburdened infrastructure ✓
- d. Economic challenges ✓
- e. Social challenges ✓
- f. Health problems ✓
- g. Political instability ✓

Also mention recommendations to counter this challenge

4) Conclusion