

Climate change awareness: more important than climate action

OUTLINE

1- Introduction

Thesis statement: climate change pose an existential threat ~~over~~ ^{to} humanity. The world is being responsive toward this leviathan by taking plethora of action. Lack of proper awareness is the irksome factor that stands in the way of effective climate action. So, raising awareness stands as more imperative action leading towards effective practical step.

2- Devastating impact of climate change globally

3- ~~Causes of climate change~~ Unnecessary argument

4- Importance of awareness related to climate change

a- Individuals will be well aware about the devastating consequences of climate change

b- Awareness will pave the way towards the formation of more responsible and cautionary society

c- Well aware people will comply with the policies and guidelines issued by government d- Awareness will lead toward individual level change which will ultimately result in greater outcome

e - Awareness will empower individuals to demand climate action and influence policy makers through informed public opinion ✓

f - It will foster responsible consumption and waste reduction among individuals ✓

g - Awareness will strengthen solidarity in addressing climate challenges ✓

h - Awareness will facilitate proactive measures in vulnerable communities ✓

i - Awareness will drive consumer choice towards eco-friendly products ✓

j - A well aware person will play an imperative role toward progress by refraining others from committing wrong actions ✓

5- In what way awareness is more imperative than climate action

a - Without adequate awareness, no one will comply with the policies & guidelines to prevent climate related devastation ✓

b - Green initiatives will be useless without the awareness of importance of forestation ✓

c - Without proper awareness, people will be reluctant toward transition into clean energy and renewable energy sources ✓

d - Funds that are provided to facilitate climate action will be useless if people

Give counter narrative instead of mentioning the significance of awareness

will not stop their wrong doing ✓

6- Conclusion

Is feminism a clearly understood concept in our society

OUTLINE

1- Introduction

Thesis statement: Feminism talks about equality for all genders in every sphere of life including social, political, cultural and domestic affairs. Initially it was focused on equality but latter some radical feminist mold the true spirit of the movement which ultimately leads to misinterpretation of the real concept of feminism.

2- Feminism as a concept and its global perspective

3- Feminism as a misunderstood concept

in our society (Thesis)

- It is considered as anti-men.
- It is believed to develop female dominance. ^{establish}
- Men cannot be considered as feminist.
- Women card is played on the name of feminism.
- It is believed to be focused on exclusive advocacy of female.

4- Feminism as a completely understood concept in our society (Anti-thesis)

- True feminist demands gender equality not male demolishment.
- It believes on female equality which is precieved as dominance in patriarchal society.

c - A man who believes in gender equality is a feminist d - A true feminist demands basic rights which is perceived as women card in anti-women society

e - It talks about all gender problems but it cannot be ignored that female remains in subjugation more often than other genders

5- Why feminism is a misunderstood concept in our society (synthesis)

a - Lack of awareness

b - Radical feminist promotes female as a better individual than male

c - Men is not accepted as feminist because it is considered as against masculinity

d - Language and terminologies used by feminists alter its real spirit

e - Role of media in spreading misconception about feminism

6- Conclusion