

Life of modern human

The new inventions of men are raising serious concerns on their need in human life. The author is of opinion that scientists have ~~either~~ ^{either} focused on physical or mental strength of human beings. Nobody has bridged the gap between both studies. This has turned human being into a materialistic civilization. The modern philosophers of Capitalism and Communism ^{have} further ^{affected} the growth of human civilization. Though modern ^{man} men is technologically advance, they ^{he is} are culturally backward. In such situations, scientific discoveries are seen as an agent of destruction and fear for human. This ^{gives} give rise to the question of purpose of human life on earth which is not undebated fully.

Words in passage = 360

u u. please = 122

Please include the original passage in the pdf.
Subject verb disagreement found. Revise present indefinite tense thoroughly.