

Topic: Criminal neglect of child labor and its consequences

Outline

1. Introduction

Thesis statement: Negligence towards child labor is not less than a social crime.

Poor economic condition and consistent negligence by higher authorities are root-causes behind this evil. By joining hands, we can eliminate the menace of child labour as a society.

2. Child labor portrays an ugly picture of a society due to negligence,

3. Factors prevailing behind criminal negligence of child labor

- High inflation rate is pushing large no. of children in this drain.
- An alarming number of drop out cases from schools
- Lack of interest of higher authorities towards child labor
- Insufficient employment opportunities for graduates
- Lack of accountability against those who are violating labor laws
- Many children are sole bread earners of their houses

4. Consequences of child labour on a society

- Poor literacy rate in a country
- Turning of child labor into Juvenile delinquents
- Low ranking of a country in Human Development Index (HDI)
- Ill effects of labor that destroys personality of a child
- Violation of basic human rights
- Loss of a useful resource for economy
- Child labors are not more than a youth bulge for a country

5. Remedial measures to overcome the menace of child labor

a. Implementing effective policies to reduce child labor

b. Provision of Free education at primary level

c. Public-private partnership to eliminate social evil of child labor

d. Introducing Financial help programs for families having no young bread earner

6. Conclusion