

TRANSLATION 2016:-

Common people think that Constitution of a country and Individuals Freedom are opposite of each other. This things does not seems wrong. Every law do implys some restriction on citizens. If country law exceeded more in number then the collective limitation also increases. Excessive restriction burdenized the Freedom of an Individual. In opposite, less of the law broad the horizon of citizen's Independency.

PREFACE 2016 :- (A TRIP TO CHEROKEE)

Author wants to visit a conventional place free of crowd. His friend John called and suggested a trip to Cherokee, a state of Oklahoma to which he agreed.

They took a flight to Cherokee and visited a town called Qualla Boundary surrounded by an artificial mountain scenery. With its Donahuftee Indian village representing the culture of 18th century and a Historical Play "Unto These Hills" Play six times in the ↓ Summer week nights; Qualla week of boundary represents the history of Cherokee to tourist.

The find a shops and tents with the help of natives because even with language barrier, The tents covered with animal skin and with some traditional things. Welcome! Want to get anything? They looked at middle-aged man who was smiling and shocked by his fluency in English. He introduced himself as John and invited them for lunch at coffee shop.

George told them about his daily ^{work} and they get to know that not only Cherokee but also the tribes, native people have to play their for income. In Bingo weekend they celebrate a success at a huge bingo hall on Friday where a lot of people gathered for fun activity. George called it a refreshing start. After returning home, he missed the place and excited for trip off next exotic place.