

Narration - 2016

Helen enquired Mr. West about the whereabouts of John. Mr. West told her that he had left the company. Helen asked for the reason behind that move to which Mr. West replied that ^{John} he wanted a raise. Mr. West denied his demand on the grounds that he was lazy. Helen was curious to know if John had found a new job. Mr. West told her that he had found one in a film company. Helen asked about John's new salary and whether he liked his new job or not. Mr. West told her that he believed John earned quite a lot but he didn't know if he liked his new job or not.
