

TRANSLATION 2016:-

Common people think that laws of a country and individuals freedom are opposite of each other. This thing does not seem wrong. Every law do implies some restriction on citizens. If country's law exceeds then the collective limitations also increase. Excessive restriction the freedom of an individual. Contrarily, less number of laws broad the horizon of citizen's Independence.

PRECI 2016:-

TRIP TO CHEROKEE

The author wanted to visit an unconventional place with his friend. They took a flight to Cherokee a state of Oklahoma. At Cherokee they visited a town Qualla Boundary surrounded by artificial mountain scenery with Oconaluftee Indian village which represents the lifestyle of tribes of 18th century. With the help of local person named George they explore the culture of Cherokee and he invited them for coffee where he told that he is a wood cutter and how he spend his life and where they learned that not only Cherokee but the people of tribes also have to play their role to run their economy. They celebrate a successful weekend called "Bingo" for their fresh restart. After returning home Author missed that place and looking forward for next trip.

Words in Preci :- 126

Words in original Passage :- 431