

Criminal Neglect of Child Labour and its Consequences.

1) Introduction:

Thesis Statement: Child labour is not only social evil but also a criminal neglect. It has multiple social and economic consequences which badly affect overall society. However, taking corrective measures by state, in collaboration with civil society, can get rid of this issue.

2) Child labour: a criminal neglect.

3) Causes of criminal neglect of child labour.

a) Lack of implementation of laws

b) No access to free education for all children.

c) Illiteracy of parents

d) Increasing poverty

e) Absence of local government system.

4) Consequences of ~~criminal~~ neglect of child labour.

- a) Physical violence against children at work place.
- b) Increase sexual abuse of children.
- c) Psychological effects on children.
- d) Increase in child delinquency
- e) Victim children unable to become effective member of society.
- f) Exploitation of the future of nation.

5) Remedial measures for child labour.

- a) Effective implementation of laws
- b) Provide constitutional right of education to every child
- c) Spreading awareness among parents.
- d) Incentive based education for poor children.