

Manto's Poetry on Dark Reality of Society

Manto being a victim of social ambivalence of society exposed the hypocrisy of society and his critics declared his writings below moral value leading to a long legal battle. He remained firm against the conservative society. He highlighted the mysteries of sex in a fleshy manner showing his concern for depressed class.

Manto shares a connection with his readers on socio-moral issues of a middle class human declaring him to be a mix of angel and devil.

He had a balanced view on human exposing the dual standard in society.

Being a literary artist like Joyce, Lawrence and Caldwell he treated vulgarity without ever sounding ~~the~~ vulgar mirroring the restlessness of society and he was also raised with some sombre enthusiasm.
