

Why there is bad governance in Pakistan?

Outline

1- Introduction

Thesis statement: Several factors are responsible for bad governance in Pakistan. Political instability, fragile democratic system, and weak accountability etc are few among evidences. However, some active measures will curb roots of bad governance for sustainable future of Pakistan.

2- A bird's eye view on the past history of bad governance in Pakistan

3- Reasons behind bad governance in Pakistan

- a) Rise of political instability in the country
- b) Fragile democratic government of Pakistan
- c) Failure of rule of law
- d) Weak accountability and transparency mechanism
- e) Unprecedented economic meltdown
- f) Massive illiteracy among the youth
- g) Misinformation and exploitation of information through media
- h) Incomplete devolution in between centre-province governments
- i) Revival of terrorism posing security risks
- j) Widened sectarianism divide destabilizing the government

4- Implications of bad governance on Pakistan

- a) Manted debt trap on Pakistan
- b) Increasing trend of brain drain in Pakistan
- c) Hindrance to political diplomacy of the international community

5- Proactive measures to curb bad governance in Pakistan

- a) Ensure free and fair election on the time
- b) Strengthen laws to make corrupts accountable
- c) Launch of awareness campaign through students' union
- d) Foster collaboration and co-operation between centre and provincial governments

6- Conclusion