

English Essay

Promises do not feed empty stomachs.

Outline:

1. Introduction

Thesis Statement:

Empty words cannot fill empty stomachs.

The indispensable human need of food cannot be fulfilled by mere rhetoric.

Undoubtedly, promises provide hope in adversity, but it is only effort that enables man to secure bread for survival.

2. An Empty Stomach Turns a Deaf Ear

a. Food is a basic human need.

b. Primitive man was a food gatherer and hunter

c. When hunger strikes, there is a need to satisfy it at any cost.

d. Wisdom and philosophy are interests of well fed people.

3. Political Rhetoric and Hunger

- a. Lofty promises made by leaders do not fill empty stomachs of <sup>the</sup> masses.
- b. A hungry society seeks revolution.
- c. There is a lack of empathy for hungry people.
- d. Social injustice ensures widespread hunger.

4. Promises Provide Hope; Actions Provide Food

5. Conclusion