

Is Pakistan facing the challenge of hybrid warfare efficiently?

Outline

1- Introduction

These statements: Undoubtedly, Pakistan is facing the challenge of hybrid warfare efficiently. But, another school of thought believes otherwise; however, the given evidences are not substantive. Therefore, it is beyond any doubt that Pakistan is efficiently facing the challenge of hybrid warfare efficiently.

2- Understanding the notion 'hybrid warfare'

3- Pakistan is facing the challenge of hybrid warfare efficiently.

a) Attack on ideology and ethnic nationalism has threatened Pakistan

b) Exploitation and misinformation on media to provide mindsets of the youth

c) Vulnerable cyber system has put Pakistan at stake

d) Rise of political instability causing institutional breakdown

e) Misinterpretation of religious knowledge promoting sectarianism

Pakistan is successfully containing the challenge of hybrid warfare efficiently.

Pakistan has successfully contained ethnic nationalism

- b) Pakistan has exposed Indian propaganda at the global stage
- c) Pakistan has launched policy to strengthen its cyber mechanism
- d) Positive role of media is filling gap between public and the institutions
- e) The National Action Plan has enhanced awareness among public

5- Pakistan is really facing the challenge of hybrid warfare efficiently

- a) Pakistan's strategy to contain ethnic nationalism is slow and weak
- b) India's propaganda to isolate Pakistan is ongoing threat
- c) Attacks on cyber systems highlights fragility of cyber mechanism
- d) Frequent judicial review on political affairs increases mistrust among public
- e) Blasphemy attacks and mobs shaping a negative image of Pakistan

5- Conclusion