

Brain drain in Pakistan: a temporary advantage of limitless loss.

1) Introduction.

Brain drain in Pakistan may seem advantageous at the first glance, yet its flip side cannot be ignored. The loss outweighs the advantages, since intellect and bright minds are way more important than mere remittances and such other temporary advantages. In the long run, brain drain serves as a huge loss for Pakistan and appropriate measures should be taken to handle this problem.

2) How brain drain in Pakistan is a temporary advantage of limitless loss

3) Factors influencing the surge of brain drain

a) Lack of opportunities.

b) Faulty merit system.

c) Greener grass abroad

d) Secure future outside of Pakistan

e) Pakistan is an underdeveloped country

f) Economic and political instability

4) Brain drain: a limitless loss

a) Creates a vacuum of intellects.

b) Shortage of skilled individuals.

c) The process of development is stunted due to lack of research work.

d) Results in lack of quality education due to the absence of professionals.

5) Measures to reduce brain drain.

a) Create more employment opportunities

b) Merit should be maintained in every field

c) Wages and work hours should align with each other.

d) Making of policies that ensure political and economic stability.

e) Quality of education should be improved

f) Initiatives to boost the process of development

g) Security of property and life should be ensured.

6) Conclusion.