Q 7

Answer -

Introduction

"Women must have fair approach to all spheres of development."

(Gender and Development
- Rawlands)

In Gender studies, various approaches have contributed to women's development. Among them Women in Development (WID), Women and Development (WAD), and Gender And Development (GAD) are on the top of the list. These gender approaches have promoted women's role in development.

2- An overview of women approaches to development

"Women should have equality in econ-

Code _____

2	(The New York Times,
3	1914)
4	Women demanded equal
5	participation in development. In fact,
6	Women are half of the world popu-
7	lation. Liberal feminism promoted 'femin-
8	ist theory', which founded women
9	in development. This shows women
10	approach to development.

3- Approach to women's development

Following is explanation.

a) Women in Development (WID)

Women in development became the first developmental step.

i) Origin

It began in 1960s. In fact it was before the first United Nations Conference.

ii) Definition

• Women should have justice and equality.

(Marry Wellstone - emp)

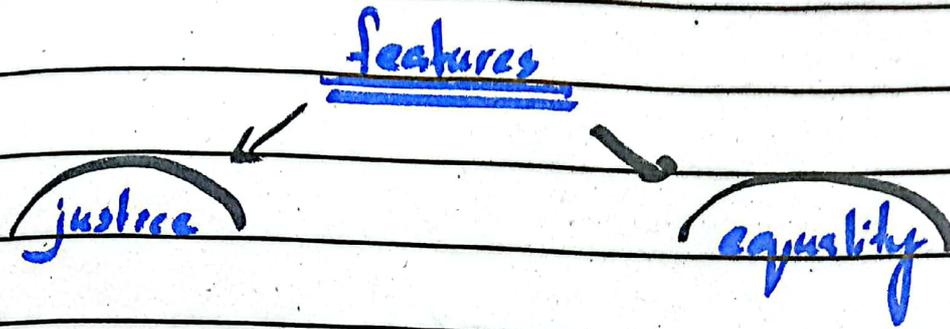

Thus, women demanded for justice in development.

iii) Features

There are two main features:

• Equality and empowerment in development.

(Jane Flux)

iv) Focus

Here is focus:

"Women empowerment is a main focus of WID."

(Rawlands)

This shows empowerment in development.

v) Achievement

Resultantly, women took part in development.

"In 1963, 'equal pay'
bill was ratified."

(The New York Times)

This shows success of WID.

vi) Criticism

However, women were supported on the basis of 'color'.

This hurt equality and development.

b) Women and Development (WAD)
Further, women and development fostered development.

i) Origin

It started in 1970s. It also added essence to the first United Nations Conference, Mexico.

ii) Definition

"Relationship between capitalism and patriarchy was created."

(Rowland)

This indicates that prevalence of capitalism and patriarchy gave awareness about development for women.

iii) Features

Similarly, women also demanded:

"Equality and empowerment."
(Gender and development - Rowlands)

According to Kate Millet,

"If women are given to equality, there would be no discrimination in development."

Hence, women again demanded equality and empowerment.

iv) Focus

Women empowerment became a motive.

"Women should be empowered in patriarchal society."

(Alison Jaggar)

v) Achievement

As a result, women contributed to development.

"Women should have equal access to labor market."

(Act of 1994 of the US - The New York Times)

This indicates success of women."

vi) Criticism

However, women from the upper class were privileged.
(Rawland)

c) Gender and development (GAD)

Gender and development demanded equality among all gender, especially in terms of women.

i) Origin

It began in 1980s.

ii) Definition

"Gender development is a birth of global democracies"

(Rowland)

Women's development was supported by gender perspectives.

iii) Features

GAD argued as:

"Domestic and reproductive violence should be stopped against women"

(Gender and Development, Rowland)

Thus, women demanded respect at domestic stage, as well.

iv) Focus

Similarly, 'Women empowerment' was focus of GAD.

v) Achievement

Women protection was ensured legally.

"In 1994, women protection in families act was introduced in the US."
(The New York Times)

Moreover,

"In 2006, Pakistan also supported act against domestic violence."

(The News, 2006)

Hence, women got development.

4- Conclusion

"If women would not be

powerful,

If women would not be influential,

Men had to oppress them."

Women and development - empowered status of women. In this regard, WID, WAD and GAD approaches to development of women are clear demonstration. Thus, Women and development made women empowered.
