

Both parents should assume equal responsibility in raising a child.

1) Introduction

Thesis Statement

Parents are two tyres of one vehicle. If one tyre is stopped or not working properly, it will cause immense destruction to the vehicle. In real life, vehicle means children.

2) Crunch Paragraph

③ Only mother is responsible for upbringing (thesis)

(a) Father is so busy

(b) Father is struggling for finances

(c) Historical and cultural perspective

(d) Females at home

(e) Males come home tired

④ Both are equally responsible (Antithesis)

(a) Mother is doing 24 hours job

(b) Children needs Father's lessons for life

(c) Successful personalities in history raised by both parents

(d) Female can teach only half lessons of life

- (e) Priorities matter
- (5) Both should participate in upbringing
- (a) Fix specific hours daily for children
- (b) Father should balance finances and children
- (c) Break cultural norms
- (d) Both should participate equally
- (e) Children are real investment
- (6) Conclusion