

Date Jan 2024

TOPIC: Elections are the only solution to multi-pronged problems in Pakistan

Outline:

- 1- Introduction
- 2- Elections and multi-pronged problems in Pakistan
- 3- Elections are the only solution to multipronged problems in Pakistan (Thesis)
  - (a) Elections lead to a politically stable environment
  - (b) Generate Law and Order by ensuring government terms
  - (c) Attract foreign investors to spend in the country and increase FDI
  - (d) Step towards good governance to actualize
  - (e) Ensure democratic norms to be upheld.
- 4- Elections are not the only solution

Pakistan (Anti-thesis)

- (a) Free and fair elections lead to political stability, not just elections
- (b) Rigging and heated conflicts can arise among political parties straining law and order
- (c) Ease of Doing Business environment in the country is more important to attract foreign investors
- (d) Transparency and participation are factors more important in good governance actualisation
- (e) More than elections, a strong public opinion determines democratic norms

5- Election provides far more solutions to the multipronged problems in Pakistan (Synthesis)

- (a) Elections are the first step to political stability
- (b) Law and order is usually not disturbed in Pakistan by elections

- (c) Elections send a direct message to foreign investors to come to Pakistan than Ease of Doing Business Index
- d) Timely elections ensure that other good governance indicators are also kept in check
- e) Elections are the most strong factor determining democratic norms.

5- Conclusion