

TOPIC:

EVOLVING MINDS WITH EDUCATION.

In the stated paragraph, the author expresses his contradictory feelings towards a certain group of people for whom education is nothing more than a means of career & opportunities. The author labelled these people as "too individualistic".

According to him education should set the bird of mind free & offer an individual with moral development & mental stability which children are unable to gain otherwise.