

POLITICAL SCIENCE - II

QUESTION :- 2

The local government system is called the grass root for of democracy. Discuss.

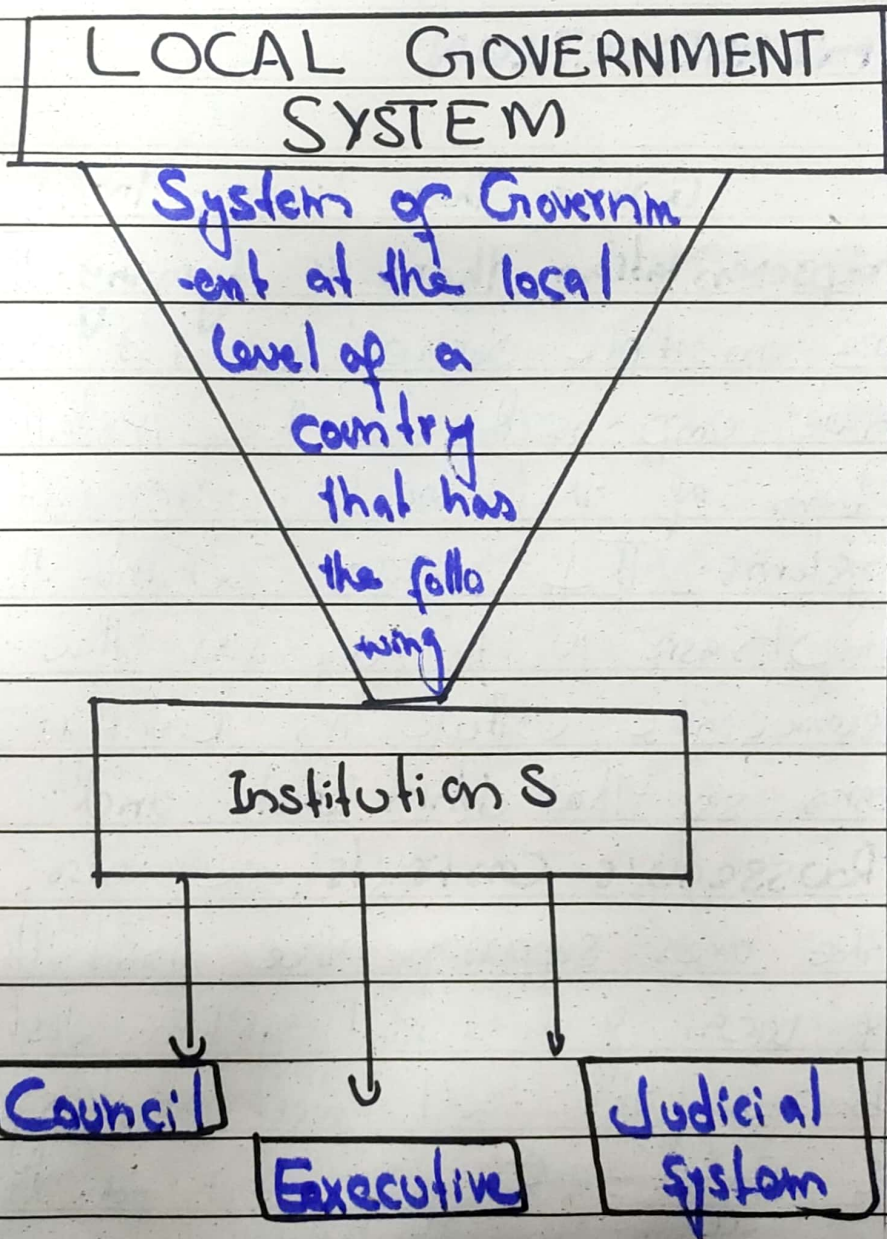

ANSWER

① INTRODUCTION

Where there is no local representation there is tyranny. There are multiple political scientist that have emphasised over the installation of the local government systems. The reason behind the emphasis is to empower the democratic culture in country. One can say that John Lock and Rousseau's contracts are also the ones supporting the installation of local government system. Just because the local government system is called ~~the~~^{as} a grass root for democracy - necessary for

It encourages masses to participate in the local political affairs and resultanty electing the leader of a country rationally.

② Local Government System - Manipulation through flow chart

The above given flow chart shows the definition and departments of Local Government system.

2) Why Local Government system called grass root for a democracy

3:1- Local Political Participation and mass-awareness - A way to spread the democratic norms

Local governments systems encourages masses to participate in the election process that inter-connect the masses with democratic principles.

3:2- Local elections and prevailing sense of value of votes to the public

Similarly, the local elections enables the public to to vote rationally at local level.

As a result of that the masses use sense while electing the leader of center.

3.3- Local Government System - An easy access to mass to evaluate the functions of government - Mo-tive of democracy

Including this, the
-ough the local government system the masses come a cross to ideas of good govern-ment. In a long run the good governance spread through -out a country.

3.4- Accountability by the Local Charismans - A system flourish - the democratic principles

It also enables the masses to accountable the charisman or executive body of the municipality. It ultimately encourages the same public to accountable the actions of Prime-Minister or President at top.

3.5- Supremacy of Civilian opinion at the Local Government - Essential for democracy

It also boasts the civilian supremacy that is the key for democracy, in short, it is grass root level democracy which spreads to whole nation.

Local Government System flourishes democracy at upper or central level

4.1- Rationalist approach while electing the leader-based on the Local Government system

The best example can be found in Europe where the masses elect leaders based on their past performance in the local government. Current U.K's Prime minister is a right example.

4.2- Bottom-up approach - Paving the way for Great Leader - concept of democracy by Local Government system

Moreover, through the Local Government system, the leader at the bottom level creates the chances to come to power. Turkish President Erdogan is accurate manifestation.

4.3- Protesting - Influencing the Government opinion by protest-sense generated after Local Government system

Simultaneously, the policy influence at the local level leads to top level. Green Policy is important to mention that initiated at local level in the U.K.

5) Nexus of Local Government in developing the Democrac- -ies - Manifestation through real life examples

5.1- The United Kingdom - Local Government systems and democracy

The U.K is considered the world's best local government managing country. Despite being the Unitary system the kingdom has devolved all the powers. These are revenue, policy making, health care. Similarly, the country world's top 10 best democratic nati-ons.

5.2- The United States - Local Government systems and democracy

Moreover, the local government system of the U.S is worth mentioning, where the Federation has constitutionally devolved the power between the Center and Province. Furthermore, the States has further devolved powers to local government. The U.S is known as Strongest Democracy.

⑥ CONCLUSION

In conclusion, the local government system is grass-root for democracy, because by it the democratic norms flourishes. That extent usually strengthens the democracy throughout the country. The U.K and the U.S are also discussed as per the local government systems.