

Criminal neglect of child labour and its consequences

Outline

1- Introduction

Thesis statement: Criminal neglect of child labour is a growing problem, which has several consequences. Weak human capital, rise of crimes, and repetition of poverty cycle etc are few among evidences. However, some measures will curb criminal neglect of child labour in order to protect children's rights.

2- An overview of criminal neglect of child labour

3- Reasons behind criminal neglect of child labour

- Unprecedented rise of poverty
- Weak implementation of policies to eradicate child labour
- Inefficiency of criminal justice system to protect children's rights
- Lack of education in the poor class
- Dominance of capital market system
- Surging inflation driving child labour

4- Consequences of criminal neglect of child

labour

- a) Weak human capital of the country
- b) Birth of serious crimes including child rape
- c) Repercussion of poverty cycle in the poor class
- d) Tremendous hindrance to the country's development
- e) Physical and mental illness of children
- f) Failure of educational system
- g) Increase in population expenses

5- Methodologies to curb criminal neglect of child labour

- a) Strict implementation of laws to protect children's rights
- b) Launch of poverty eradication plans
- c) Provide free and quality of education
- d) Promote awareness campaign on children's rights

6- Conclusion