

day/date

Is Pakistan Ready For Digital Revolution

I. Introduction

In Contemporary world, digital is the new normal. Pakistan is ready for a complete shift towards digitalization across all sectors, including economic, social and political dimensions.

II. Understanding Digital Revolution

III. Pakistan is Ready for Digital Revolution

1. Pakistan is creating ease for tech enabled countries

- Providence of tax credits to Pakistan Software export base IT startups

2. Providence of digital infrastructure

- Projects of fiber optic cable and Underwater cables Under CPEC

3. Increase in the adoption of internet services

- Report of Digital Now

4. Initiatives to teach digital skills

- National digital skill program

EXCELLENT

for digital marketing, software development and graphic design.

5. More people are adopting for tech-centric education

- 300,000 IT professionals are present

6. Empowering <sup>women</sup> ~~girls~~ in technology

- ICT for girls Program

7. Existing private digital business setups influencing other entrepreneurs

- Alibaba and Daraz.pk

8. Efforts for safe digital environment

- Prevention of Electronic Crimes Act (PECA)

9. Future planning for digitalization

- Vision 2025 of Pakistan heavily focuses on digitalization

10. Shift towards digital democracy

- E-Voting

- E-Government Services

- Digital platforms for public consultation

IV. Impacts of Digital Revolution on Pakistan in Near Future

1. Economic growth and job creation

day/date

- Attract foreign investment

2. Enhanced government efficiency and transparency

3. Improved access to education and healthcare

V. Conclusion

EXCELLENT