

Cyber warfare: How can harm the world

Outline

1- Introduction

Thesis statement Growing threats of cyber warfare can harm the world at a large extent. The world is facing increasing risks of ideological attacks, and separatist movement, political turmoil, and institutional breakdown, and economic meltdown etc. However, some rational steps will curb threats of cyber warfare for sustainable future of the world.

2- Understanding the notion 'cyber warfare'

3- Manifestation of cyber warfare in the world

- a) Exploitation of information against rival countries
- b) Dominance of Western technology manipulating public narratives
- c) Attack on cyber system to breach data
- d) Frequent hacking of websites for surveillances
- e) Prevalence of propaganda to destabilize states

4- Cyber warfare as a major risk to the world

- a) Promotion of ideological and separatist movements
- b) Resurgence of terrorism at global stage
- c) Massive political instability and institutional breakdown
- d) Surging economic downturn and flagging economy
- e) Global political isolation of countries

START FORM HERE

- f) Formation of global alliances and anti-alliances
- g) Rise of nuclear imbalance in the world
- h) Imposition of tariffs and trade deficit
- i) Failure of global diplomacy

5- Methodologies to curb threats of cyber warfare

- a) Strengthen cyber security mechanism
- b) Engage in global diplomacy, bilaterally, trilaterally, and multi-laterally
- c) Arrange global conferences on the safety of artificial intelligence

6- Conclusion

