Low salary for highly qualified youth

Among several causes, low salary for highly qualified youth is a chief reason behind brain drain in Pakistan. No doubt, in Pakistan the youth has poor salary package as a return of their work. This growing dilemma has forced the youth of Pakistan to move abroad for better salary package. According to the research by Pew Research Centre, "Approximately 69% of Pakistani believe that the low salary as a main cause of brain drain in Pakistan" (Pew Research Centre, 2022). This indicates that low salary for highly qualified youth is a root cause of brain drain in Pakistan.
