

Is Pakistan facing the challenge of hybrid warfare efficiently?

Outline

Introduction

Thesis statements: Unfortunately, Pakistan is facing the challenge of hybrid warfare efficiently. But another school of thought believes otherwise; however, the given evidences are not substantive. Therefore, it is beyond any doubt that Pakistan is facing the challenge of hybrid warfare efficiently.

2- Understanding the notion 'hybrid warfare'

3- Pakistan is facing the challenge of hybrid warfare efficiently

- a) Growing ideological and separatist movements
- b) Misinterpretation of religious values to destabilize the country
- c) Exploitation and misinformation on media to provoke mindsets of the youth
- d) Unprecedented attacks on cyber system of Pakistan
- e) Institutional breakdown and political turmoil

4- Pakistan is containing the challenge of hybrid warfare efficiently

- a) Pakistan has successfully contained separatist movements
- b) National Action Plan successfully curbs threats of sectarianism

- c) Pakistan has successfully exposed Indian propaganda at global stage.
- d) Effective cyber space policy has strengthened cyber system of Pakistan
- e) Pakistan fills gap between institutions and public through media

5- Pakistan is still facing the challenge of hybrid warfare efficiently

- a) Containment of sub-national movements is slow and weak
- b) Massive extremism and blasphemy attacks has put Pakistan at stake
- c) Prevalence of civil war after failure of the former government
- d) Vulnerability of cyber space has shaken Pakistan
- e) Judicial review by chief justice decreased public trust

6- Conclusion