Attention Grabber

"In a globalized world, global countries are moving towards competition in the international community." (Thomas Friedman, The World is Flat, 2005) No doubt, the whole world has faced a tug of war against each other, which has also awakened up Pakistan to balance its order.

Independent

Independent foreign policy on global affairs

However, Pakistan has followed independent foreign policy on global affairs in the age of global tug of war. Pakistan has always advocated global peace and order in the world. This is clear from its independent stance on global affairs. "Premier Imran Khan's stance 'Absolutely Not' has made a clear demonstration on independent foreign policy." (The News, 2022). This indicates that independent foreign policy on global affairs has clearly highlighted position of Pakistan on global tug of war.
