

Criminal neglect of child labor and its consequences.

Outline:-

1) Introduction

Child labor is an unfortunate reality of Pakistan and prevails in our society. Criminal neglect is fuelling it up. Weak democracy, absence of rule of law, and economic inequality are certain reasons of child labor which resulted in poor psychological, physical health and deprive children of their basic human rights. However, by proper implementing and enforcing ^{anti-} child labor laws, this issue can be reduced.

2) Crunch paragraph

3) Reasons of neglecting child labor in Pakistan

a) Political causes such as flawed democracy ✓

b) Due to prevalence of social problems ✓

c) Existence of economic inequality ✓

d) Absence of rule of law ✓

e) Weak administrative structure ✓

- 4) Consequences of neglecting child labor
- a) Children health affected adversely
 - b) Deprived children of the development of various skills
 - c) Persistence of class and income inequality
 - d) Violation of basic human rights
 - e) Deprives the children to acquire education

5) How it can be prevented/reduced in Pakistan?

- a) Strengthening democracy
- b) By implementing robust anti-child labour laws
- c) Social protection given to poor
- d) Ensuring quality education access to children

6) Conclusion satisfactory democracy has nothing to do with it it is more prevalent in democratic states

rest is fine