

Elections are the only solution to multi-pronged problems in Pakistan

1. Introduction

Thesis Statement: Throughout the history only elected governments with backing from public have bring prosperity to their nations. Same is the case of Pakistan, Elections and Political stability are the only solution to multi-pronged problems in Pakistan.

2. Major Problems Pakistan Facing

- a. Economy in turbulence
  - i. Unemployment
  - ii. Balance of Payment Crisis
  - iii. Low Foreign Reserves
  - iv. Currency devaluation
- b. Division on Political bases: Ethnic, Linguistic, Provincialism, Religious
- c. Terrorism and Extremism
- d. Extremely High Population Growth Rate
- e. Climate Change and its impacts

Irrelevant portion

3. Elections: Only Solution

- a. Representative and responsible government
- b. Mandate to address issues and reforms
- c. Elected government can bring reforms to address economic vows
- d. Democratic institutions can end division and make strong federation:

18th Constitutional Amendment and Fata Merges.

e. Operations and actions against terrorists, terrorists and extremists with public support: Operation Zarb-e-Azab, Raj-ul-Fasad, etc.

f. Only government with representation of masses can implement reforms to control population

g. Climate change can be halted by elected government and elected government can address it, reverse its impacts by with public support.

4. Conclusion

Do not write irrelevant details