DIALOGUE

JACK: Hello, swarp! Swatting away as usual, come out man; shut up your old books, and come and have a game of tennis

SWARP: I am sorry I can't do that, Jack. The examination is drawing near, and I want every hour I can get for study.

JACK: Oh! Hang all examinations! I don't worry about mine. What is the use of them, anyway?

SWARP: Well, you can't get a degree if you don't pass the examination, and it has set my heart on being a graduate.

JACK: And pray what good will graduation do you? You may get a clerkship in a government office but that's all, and there are hundreds of fellows who have got their degree and are no nearer getting jobs of any sort.

SWARP: That maybe so, but I am not studying so much to pass my examination and obtain my degree as to store my mind with knowledge and develop my intellectual faculties.

ANSWER:-

Jack greeted swarp, showed his obsession with books and asked him to play tennis. swarp apologized Jack because examination was drawing near and he wanted to give his all time for study. Jack ridiculed all examination useless and didn't worry about himself. Swarp replied Jack one couldn't get degree without passing examinations and he had intended to graduate. Jack again censured and said he might get clerkship in government office he also reminded many degree holders are jobless. Swarp agreed his point by saying that he was not studying for passing exams to obtain degree but for knowledge and intellectual faculties.
