

ESSAY :

Do we really need literature in our lives?

OUTLINE:-

1- Introduction.

THESIS STATEMENT: literature is a fundamental necessity in our lives as it helps to preserve cultural heritage, stimulates critical thinking, improves communication skills, fosters personal growth, gain access to diverse perspective and teaches the meaning of life. Whereas, some people do not consider literature as important as it is because they believe it deviates from normal routine, it is time-consuming, it makes an individual antisocial and it creates fantasies in the lives of people. However, in today's advanced world people need literature more than ever.

2- Need of Exploring the collaboration: literature and Human life.

3. Need of literature in our life.

- 3.1 Preservation of cultural heritage.
- 3.2 Stimulating critical thinking.
- 3.3 Improving communication skills.
- 3.4 Helps in fostering personal growth.
- 3.5 Ensuring access to diverse perspectives.
- 3.6 Assist to teach meaning of life.
- 3.7 Provides ways of entertainment.

4. Antithesis: Challenge to the relevance of literature.

- 4.1 Deviation from normal routine.
- 4.2 Way to escapism.
- 4.3 It is a time-consuming activity.
- 4.4 Create fantasies and avoiding reality.
- 4.5 A mean to mental illness.

5. Synthesis: Adapting literature in modern days.

- 5.1 Creates balance between different Be specific
- 5.2 Provides easy access to history through technology
- 5.3 Integration of Repetition of idea
- 5.4 Encountering value of critical thinking

6. Conclusion.

Arguments are not as sound here as you presented in the thesis part

Day: _____

Date: _____

Introduction:

The question of whether literature is a necessity in our lives is a complex and multifaceted one. It explores the impacts of written things in itself which provides numerous affects to the people directly or indirectly.

Literature has a trickle-down effect

On ~~to many~~ humanity throughout the ages, as it has always played a key part in the human beings' search for meaning.

It not only is a form of entertainment, and serves as a medium that shapes our perspectives but also contributes to the intellectual and emotional development of individuals.