

World peace is a choice of super powers.

Outline:-

1. Introduction

Thesis Statement:- Power has influence on the world in such a way that peace and war has now become a choice of superpowers. However, world peace is a choice of superpowers because they possess potential to provide world peace and economic pacts signed with superpowers are prerequisite to peaceful conditions of the states.

Thesis statement doesn't substantiate the stance

2. Possibilities of peace and war in the world: choice of superpowers.

3. How world peace is a choice of superpowers?

- superpowers have potential to mediate conflicts and engage nations in peaceful negotiations. talks. initiatives
- superpowers can pacify or provoke wars using their military powers.
- superpowers have capability of promoting peace by involving states in economic cooperation and development.
- superpowers are capable of promoting educational and cultural programmes to foster mutual understanding.

e) Superpowers can promote peace by promoting human rights and monitoring human abuses.

4 Why world peace is not a choice of superpowers?

- Superpowers, themselves, are likely to engage in conflict and competition.
- Sovereign states are not bound to follow superpowers to defend their borders.
- States sign economic deals when they consider them a win-win situation.
- Superpowers only promote their interests not any culture.
- International organizations are responsible for promoting human rights and monitoring abuses.

5. Potential of superpowers to promote world peace

- The cold war between superpowers is to maintain hegemony in the region that helps in maintaining peace in the world.
- Interventions of a powerful country in conflicted zones helps reducing atrocities.
- Economic pacts signed between states are pre-requisite to peaceful conditions of the states.
- Cultural exchange programs are helping in reducing sectarianism and violence.
- Superpowers are the key players for the international organizations aimed for protecting human rights.

6. Conclusion

Corporate dreams of success and human health.

1. Introduction

Thesis statement:- Corporate dreams of success refer to the aspiration and goals that companies have in order to achieve growth. It is for bringing innovation and growth to meet demands of the changing world. However, a balance between corporate dreams and human health is important for long term accomplishments.

2. Nexus between corporate dreams of success and human health

3. What are the corporate dreams of success.

- Dream of becoming a market leader.
- Innovation and growth to meet changing market demands.
- Financial stability and development.
- Building a strong identity and gaining recognition.

4. Importance of human health and accomplishment of corporate dreams.

- Good health allows one to have the energy and vitality to pursue ones dreams and goals.
- Good health is essential for overall

- well being and unwavering struggle.
- Attention towards health reduces ^{the} risk of chronic diseases and increases longevity.

5. Impact of corporate dreams of success on human health.

- stress due to excessive work hours.
- pressure to meet corporate goals and tight deadlines.
- Environmental degradation due to corporate dream of innovation and growth.
- Toll on physical and mental well being due to excessive work load. repetition of idea
- Development of unhealthy life style habits due to disturbance of work-life balance.

6. Balancing corporate dreams and human health.

- ~~Prop~~ Framework to encourage responsible and sustainable corporate practices.
- Work-life balance and employee well being.
- Celebration of small steps to get more power for achieving further goals.
- Prioritizing employee health and happiness.

7. Conclusion

Topic:- Injustice Anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere

1. Introduction

Thesis Statement:- Humans are caught in an inescapable network of mutuality, tied in a single garment of destiny. Whatever affects one directly, affects all others indirectly. The quote can be applied to social injustice, economic injustice, environmental injustice and injustice in the legal system.

2. Injustice as an inescapable threat to justice

3. Injustice: A threat to fair and just society

- Discrimination on the basis of gender, caste, culture, creed, colour.
- upholding of human rights.
- Deprivation from basic fundamental rights.
- Injustice in legal justice system.

4. Implementation of quote on various aspects of human life.

- unequal distribution of wealth and resources and exploitation of workers and marginalized communities.
- Environmental degradation and its worst effect on third world countries.

- c) Biased gender roles set by societies
- d) and fewer opportunities for girls.
- d) Injustice at work place
- e) Extremism and sectarian violence in societies

5. Political realm institutionalizing injustice

- a) Dynastic politics: a vicious circle of injustice
- b) Corrupt practices of political leaders results in failed principles of justice and equality.
- c) Absence of rule of law in the country

6. Injustice overshadowing justice at national and international levels.

- a) powerful countries oppressing the rights of others.
- b) colonialism and imperialism in various parts of the world.
- c) Trampling of humanitarian rights and values.
- d) Attack ~~and~~ on independent sovereign states and silence of superpowers and world human rights organizations.

7. Conclusion