

Climate change: Addressing the global crisis for sustainable future

Outline

1- Introduction

Thesis statement: Climate change needs proactive strategies to address global crisis for sustainable future. Global climate conferences, carbon reduction policies, and financial commitment etc are few among substantive evidences. Therefore, these proactive strategies will curb global climate crisis for sustainable future.

2- A glance at current scenarios of climate change

3- Manifestation of climate change at global stage

- Net zero myth by the global North
- Unprecedented reliance on fossil fuels for energy generation
- Inefficiency to comply with zero carbon emission policies
- Major contribution to green house gases
- Poor financial commitment on climate funds
- Exploitation of natural environment in developing countries

4- Proactive strategies to address global crisis of climate change for sustainable future

- Engage in global conferences on climate change
- Enact policies on global carbon reduction

- c) Advocate for fair and equitable policies on climate resilience for developing countries ✓
- d) Foster financial commitment for environmental stewardship ✓
- e) Discourage dependency on fossil fuels for energy production ✓
- f) Invest in renewable energy resources ✓
- g) Co-operate and collaborate on climate sustainability ✓
- h) Initiate global reforestation and re-forestation ✓
- i) Promote green tourism with international collaboration ✓
- j) Launch clean energy projects ✓

5- Conclusion

Good

