

Is digital economy a leveler or a source of economic inequality?

Outline

1- Introduction

Thesis statement: Digital economy is a leveler of economic growth. But, another school of thought believes otherwise; however, the given evidences are not substantive. Therefore, it is beyond any doubt that digital economy is a real leveler of economic development.

2- Understanding the notion 'digital economy'

3- Digital economy is a leveler.

- a) Faster growth of domestic entrepreneurship throughout the country
- b) A step towards digitalization of all financial services throughout the country
- c) Digital transaction has balanced dangling economic sectors
- d) Online shopping has promoted women's labour participation
- e) Development of information technology system contributes to employment

SUPPLEMENT

Name of Examination: SSC / HSC Part I - II 20
Annual/Supplementary

Subject _____ Paper _____

Date _____ Signature of Examiner _____

Serial No. _____

Seat No. _____

Signature of _____ Invigilator _____

Space for affixing Centre Seal

(To be done within the Circle

Only after submission of the Script by the Candidate)

START FORM HERE

4- Digital economy is a source of economic inequality

a) Widened wealth and income inequality among public

b) Fake identity poses threat to the speedy collection of taxes

c) Cyber frauds have threatened digital economy

d) Widened digital illiteracy among women

e) Fragile internet system and power shortage in the country

5- Digital economy is a rest leveler of clanging economy

a) A revolutionary opportunity for growth of economy

b) The government has initiated digital system to regularize non-registered exchanges

c) Strong cyber security policy has added oxygen to digital economy

d) Social media has become a tool of promoting digital awareness among women

e) Government has taken steps to strengthen country's internet system

Good

6- Conclusion