

Artificial Intelligence can be the savior of human race

The thesis statement:

Artificial intelligence is transforming almost every field of life. It can be used as the savior of human race. However, there are some hurdles in the way such as high cost. These obstacles can be overcome through awareness and cooperation.

I. Introduction

II. Artificial Intelligence - an overview

III. How Artificial Intelligence can be the savior of human race:

- A. Upgradation in the field of medicine
- B. Augmenting the economy
- C. Reducing the impacts of climate change
- D. Increasing yield of agriculture products
- E. Transforming the transport industry
- F. Advancement in small businesses
- G. Utilization of Artificial Intelligence to meet energy demands

H. Use of Artificial Intelligence in space monitoring

G. Availability of Artificial Intelligence around the clock

IV. How Artificial Intelligence can affect human race:

A. Invasion of privacy and exploitation of information

B. Fear of overpowering human beings

V. Hurdles in the way that hinder the efficiency of Artificial Intelligence:

A. Requirement of high cost

B. Demand for skilled workers

VI. ways forward that help Artificial Intelligence to increase its productivity:

A. Introduction of Artificial Intelligence as compulsory subject in syllabus

B. Establishment of international body under United Nations organization

VII. Conclusion

Good