

Is Pakistan facing the challenge of hybrid warfare efficiently?

Outline

1- Introduction

Thesis statement: Undoubtedly, Pakistan is facing the challenge of hybrid warfare efficiently. But, another school of thought believes otherwise; however, the given evidences are not substantive. Therefore, it is beyond any doubt that Pakistan is efficiently facing the challenge of hybrid warfare efficiently.

Thesis statement should be more self-explanatory

2- Understanding the notion 'hybrid warfare'

3- Pakistan is facing the challenge of hybrid warfare efficiently.

a) ~~Attack on ideology and ethnic nationalism has threatened Pakistan~~

b) ~~Exploitation and misinformation on media to provide mindsets of the youth~~

It means Pakistan is not facing it efficiently

c) ~~Vulnerable cyber system has put Pakistan at stake~~

d) ~~Rise of political instability causing institutional breakdown~~

e) ~~Misinterpretation of religious knowledge promoting sectarianism~~

Sub-arguments are against the main header

Pakistan is successfully containing the challenge of hybrid warfare ~~efficiently~~.

Pakistan has successfully contained ethnic nationalism

- b) Pakistan has exposed Indian propaganda at the global stage
- c) Pakistan has launched policy to strengthen its cyber mechanism
- d) Positive role of media is filling gap between public and the institutions
- e) The National Action Plan has enhanced awareness among public

5- ~~Pakistan is really facing the challenge of hybrid war~~ ~~fare efficiently~~ Understanding is not accurate

- a) ~~Pakistan's strategy to contain ethnic nationalism is slow and weak~~
- b) ~~India's propaganda to isolate Pakistan is ongoing threat~~
- c) ~~Attacks on cyber systems highlights fragility of cyber mechanisms~~
- d) ~~Frequent judicial review on political affairs increases mistrust among public~~
- e) ~~Blasphemy attacks and mobs shaping a negative image of Pakistan~~

5- Conclusion