

Criminal Neglect of Child labor and its Consequences

①: Introduction

U.S. Child labor is present in different forms in societies and it has become so common that it is totally neglected ~~for~~ Crime List. It is inflicting societies and these is need for Robust action to minimize it.

②: What is Child labor?

③: Illustrate the Reasons of Neglect of Child labor as a Crime:

A: Fragile Juvenile Justice System of a Country

B: medieval Time Bonded Slavery System existence in 21st Century

D: Goals of some influential agencies involvement

Unclear argument

E: Poor Understanding of the acronym of Child labor

F: Bad performance of law enforcement agencies

G: Psychological neglect of children behavior

H: Ineligible Government and violation of Child rights

I: Lack of Robust law against Child labor

4: What are the Consequences of Aforementioned Issues of Child Labor?

A: Increase Rate of Juvenile Delinquency

B: Acceleration of malnutrition in Children

C: Aggravation of Sexual Abuse in Child

D: Normalization of Domestic Violence of Children

E: Double-jeopardy for both Children and Country

F: Promotion of ill-psychological prone Society of Child: Deviant to Crime

G: Socialization of Criminal behaviour.

H: Country Bad Image at International forums

5: How the Consequences of Child labor could be minimized?

A: Need for a Robust Juvenile Justice System

B: Shift of focus of Government over public spending: especially on Child Protection

C: Public-Private Partnership to keep check on Child labor ✓

D: Rehabilitation Programs for those child who are convicted

E: Reformation in Law Enforcement Agencies ✓

6: Conclusion