

SUPPLEMENT

Name of Examination: SSC / HSC Part I - II 20
Annual/Supplementary

Subject _____ Paper _____

Date _____ Signature of Examiner _____

Serial No. _____

Seat No. _____

Signature of _____ Invigilator _____

Space for affixing Centre Seal
(To be done within the Circle
Only after submission of the Script by the Candidate)

START FORM HERE

Democracy is the worst form of governance for illiterate nations

Outline

1- Introduction

Thesis statement: Democracy is the worst form of government for illiterate nations. But, another school of thought believes otherwise; however, the given evidences are not substantive. Therefore, it is beyond any doubt that democracy is the worst form of governance for illiterate nations.

2- A glance at the democratic form of the government

3- Democracy is the worst form of governance for illiterate nations

- Education is a basic tool for democracy
- No rule of law survive without education
- Illiteracy contributes to gender inequality threatening democracy
- Massive unawareness among public shrinks rights of

START FORM HERE

minorities ✓

e) Biased media manipulates mindsets of the youth ✓

4- Democracy is not the worst form of governance for illiterate nations

- a) Acquisition of rights supports democratic government ✓
- b) Rule of law has supreme authority by the constitution ✓
- c) Role of state leads to gender parity ✓
- d) The constitution protects rights of minorities ✓
- e) Free press contributes to digital democracy ✓

5- Democracy is the true worst form of governance for illiterate nations

- a) Awareness among people demands for rights <sup>strengthens</sup> ~~encouraging~~ democracy ✓
- b) Rule of law survives in hands of educated stakeholders ✓
- c) Civic engagement has roots in gender parity ✓
- d) Misinterpretation of religious knowledge poses threat to the constitution ✓
- e) Education paves a way for free press ✓

6- Conclusion