

Essay Outline

"Learning from the past paves the way for the future."

1) Introduction

Thesis Statement: He who does not look back at his past will never be able to reach his future. As by reflecting on one's origins and history, one can gain insight into their present circumstances and make informed decisions about their future. The paper emphasizes the self learning and awareness from one's experiences in order to move forward with purpose and direction.

Thesis statement should be more mature

2) Relationship between learning from past and future decisions

3) How learning from past paves the way for future

a) Countries move toward societal progress through unity Case in point: Creation of European Union in Europe in post WWII era for establishment of peace

b) Researchers and engineers make technological innovations Case in point: The evolution of Pakistan's plan to 5G Network from deploy August, 2024

c) Economic crises lead to the establishment of liberal policies and financial institutions.

Case in Point: Great Depression of 1930s in Europe led to the creation of Global Institution like International Monetary Fund in 1944

d) Countries are moving toward environmental Conservation due to recognition of environmental impact of past practices.
Case in Point: Sustainable Development Goals Vision, 2030

e) Countries achieved medical advancement due to pandemics worldwide Case in Point: China's breakthrough in adenovirus type-5 vector-based COVID-19 vaccine

f) Countries have undergone political transformation Case in Point: the fall of ~~oppressive Ottoman regimes~~ Empire and USSR leading to sovereign states with the ~~the~~ globalization of world.

g) Conflict resolution among states leads to the establishment of global organizations Case in Point: Formation of United Nations Security Council and International Court of Justice in 1945.

u) Impacts of learning from past paves the way for future

a) Individuals, organizations, and governments make informed choices

b) Learning from past experience fosters a culture of continuous improvement

c) Knowledge of historical events helps in preparing nations for similar challenges

d) Historical conflicts promote global cooperation

5) Conclusion