Democracy has failed
in Pakistan?

In fact democracy has failed completely because politicians always preferred their interests than that of Pakistan.

There is price hike and poverty has increased and there is a high ratio of unemployment.

These are the marks
of failure of democracy.

Why do people want democracy? Because Public think they will elect politicians and they will represent on behalf of public in as-semblies. They will provide basic necessities of public that is called democracy.

Failure of democracy is in Pakistan. Everyone can see there is no enforcement of laws or constitution. In democracy everybody has a right to criticize the policies of government but situation is different in Pakistan. In democracy everybody can contest in an election. Everybody has a freedom to speech, unfortunately there is where is no concept of freedom to speak and fair elections that country is not democratic but an autocratic country. In autocratic countries, people are dominated by implementation of black laws if anyone dares to speak against government his tongue is stopped.

Why is Kashmir unresolved issue?

- (1) Economic reason: India is 9th largest economy as well as biggest market for the world. Second one Pakistan's economy is 8300 billion while Indian economy is three trillion dollars. Countries close their eyes when India violates international law because countries have interests with India that is why in the race of interests there is no value of morals.
- (2) Indian lobby and diaspora is stronger than that of Pakistan: This is ^{the} reality ^{that} Pakistani diaspora is in Saudi Arabia, Qatar, Oman, UAE and some other arabic countries while Indian diaspora is in U.S.A, Canada, U.K, France etc.
