

World peace is the crown of

2. Introduction:

- (i) Formation of UN to propagate and maintain global peace
- (ii) Impacts of a world without peace and order
- (iii) Thesis Statement

2. World peace is the choice of super powers

(i) The Burden of responsibility: Super powers as Global stewards;

(a) "The price of greatness is responsibility" (Winston Churchill).

(ii) Diplomacy as a catalyst for peace;

(a) "It always seems impossible until it's done" (Nelson Mandela)

(iii) The power of Economic cooperation,

(a) "Let us never negotiate out of fear. But let us never fear to negotiate." (John F. Kennedy)

(iv) Shared Values as a foundation for peace;

(a) "You must be the change you want to see in the world." (Mahatma Gandhi)

(v) Nuclear disarmament: A pinnacle of peaceful International;

(a) "A nuclear war cannot be won and must never be fought" (Ronald Reagan)

(vi) The Role of soft power: Influence through attraction;

Date: / / 20

(a) "The soft power of attraction becomes an important part of foreign policy." (Joseph S. Nye Jr.)

3) World peace is not a choice of Super powers

(i) Not all of the super powers opt for peace in certain conflicts:

(a) Russia - Ukraine war and the former's veto.

(b) Israel - Palestine conflict and US's malignant involvement.

(ii) The lust for Global Hegemony.

(a) Case study of United States.

(iii) Economic rivalry instead of Economic coordination.

(b) China - USA Tech war and the struggle for being an economic giant.

(iv) Nuclear proliferation on the part of Super powers.

(a) Russia, China and USA: World's most heavily armed nuclear arsenal.

(v) Human's basic instinct to surpass others.

4) Conclusion.

Add synthesis as well