

Global peace is a choice of superpowers

Outline

1- Introduction

Thesis statement: Undoubtedly, world peace is a choice of superpowers. But, another school of thought believes otherwise; however, the given arguments are not substantive. Therefore, it is beyond any doubt that world peace is really a choice of superpowers.

2- A glance at the relationship between world peace and role of super powers

3- World peace is a choice of superpowers

- a) Engagement in diplomatic efforts to solve global conflicts peacefully.
- b) Proximity of superpowers has averted great wars.
- c) Role of P-5 at the United Nations Security Council has significantly promoted peace.
- d) Peace treaty between Russia and Ukraine has stopped nuclear deployment. This is example/manifestation, not argument.
- e) Superpowers have successfully maintained peace through non-proliferation treaty.

4- World peace is not a choice of superpowers

- a) Global powers stay away in engagement of diplomatic affairs

- b) Superpowers have started great wars in the world
- c) United Nations General Assembly has still questioned P-5 hegemony
- d) Russia has suspended treaty on peace threatening world peace Which treaty? Be specific
- e) Non-signatories of non-proliferation treaty put global peace at stake Super powers are signatory

5- World peace is really a choice of superpowers

- a) Bilateral, trilateral, and multilateral diplomatic engagement has shaped peaceful global environment
- b) Co-operation and collaboration between global powers have launched anti-terrorist operations
- c) P-5 are responsible for peace-keeping through disarmament
- d) Agreements between superpowers on treaty of peace are rigid
- e) Superpowers strive to control non-signatories through nuclear-supplier groups

6- Conclusion