Future Predictions in Ancient Greece

People's fear, when compared difficulties of life with universe, led them to connect with the gods. For the connection, they required knowledge of god's wishes. Soothsayers predicted the wishes by understanding divine's signals - they construe lightning, thunder, bird's movement, fire burning, and sacrificial animals for the prediction. Dreams analysis and Palmistry was also famous. However, in many cases gods communicated people through prophets. ^{Moreover,} In ancient Greece, Delphi and Dodona were the oracles of the prominent gods: Apollo and Zeus.
