

IMF bailout: roads to stability or recipes for disaster

Outline

1 Introduction

- Hook
- General statement
- Thesis statement

2 A brief overview of IMF structure and its way of functioning

3 IMF bailout strategy is roadmap for disaster (Thesis)

3(a) IMF imposes strict condition on a country which takes loan.

3(b) IMF undermine sovereignty of a country which is necessary for security

3(c) IMF creates a sense of dependency on external funding which show weakness of a country

3(d) IMF is burden on a country lead to economic crisis

(4) IMF approach is road to stability of a country (Anti-Thesis)

4(a) IMF introduce structural reform to improve economic condition of a country

4(b) IMF as identifies weak area for reform to achieve sustainable developments

4(c) IMF emphasizes to promote private sector growth

4(d) IMF provides guidance for strengthening governance which lead to stability in a country.

(5) IMF bailouts is ultimately a path for disaster of a country

4(a) IMF enhances inequality by imposing more taxes on poor and salary class

4(b) IMF can a debt trap because countries <sup>will</sup> ~~will~~ <sub>contact</sub> again for IMF bailout due to its inefficiency

4(c) IMF policies prioritizes economic growth over environmental protection.

4(d) IMF is short term economic gain rather than long term sustainable growth.

(5) Conclusion

China Pak economic corridor and it's socio economic implication for region and world.

(1) Introduction

(2) Overview of importance of China - Pakistan Economic Corridor

(3) Economic implication of CPEC
as a whole

(a) Pakistan's economy will be boosting through infrasture development and investment

(b) CPEC is a source for creation of job opportunities which reduce poverty.

(c) Encouraging regional trade and connectivity is also aim of CPEC

(d) CPEC will boost human development and poverty reduction.

(4) Socio-economic impacts of CPEC across the globe region

(a) CPEC has potential to increase regional inteegration which ~~it~~ will enhance trade relation among countries

(b) CPEC raises concern about security for whole region.

(c) CPEC aim to enhance energy cooperation among neighbour country

(d) CPEC will foster people to people contact which can increase socio-culture exchange

(e) CPEC highlights environment sustainability concern which need to be adressed through eco friendly practice.

(5)

Effect of CPEC on socio-economic development for the world

(a) CPEC goal is to enhance global trade in effective way.

(b) CPEC can become a source for reduction of poverty across the global

(c) CPEC is enhancing importance of multi-polar world to increase equality

(d) CPEC is a flagship project of BRI to enhance global connectivity through investment

(5)

Conclusion