The Essay

A student of Haides Ali Aatish, frustrated with his financial conditions, told Aatish that he wanted to leave for Benares. In response, Aatish told him to convey his greetings to the God of Benares. The student was shocked and asked Aatish if the God of Benares was different from the God they worshipped locally. Aatish explained that if God is one and the same everywhere, there was no need to go elsewhere, as the God who could provide sustenance in Benares could also provide it here, and he advised the student to be content and stay. Thus, intellectual minds always appreciate the young minds to remain determined no matter what kind of hurdles they are facing. One day, their beloved country will prosper due to their devotions and
