ASSIGNMENT # 2

(CSS Past Paper 2016)

Translation:

It is generally believed that the laws of a country and the freedom of a man are contrary to each other. Apparently, this does not seem wrong. Every law imposes certain restriction on the citizens. If the number of laws in a country is great, there are more collective constraints. The freedom of an individual is suppressed under the burden of multiple restrictions. On the contrary, if there are limited number of laws, the domain of the citizens' freedom is vast.
