

TRANSLATION- CSS 2023

Old man told that there is a mountain across the forest where comes that flower whose fragrance brings back lost eyesight but the mountain is too high and it has too many hills, spiny bushes and huge rocks that blocks the pathway. To climb on this mountain, many ^{came} people came and gone but never a person who reached to the flower. May be that is why world is full of pain and problem and human is in search of light.

ANSWER - 1

According to author civil society ~~are~~ are all those places where common people casually discuss different topics of life from relationships to politics. These places may be a park of community or sports ground where individuals are not under any formal pressure of work.

ANSWER - 2

Civil society ~~is~~ ^{is} made up of different communities and every community is based on its own culture and style. Tolerating ~~the~~ the opinions of individuals would ultimately brings better socialization in society. People have to develop strategies for dealing with differences of opinion that ~~emerge~~ ^{emerge} within association.

ANSWER - 3

Civil society is considered as public stakeholder because it carries all sort of individuals and communities with different mindset and opinion living together. For example if there is a problem in a community then all members of society will take part in it and try to solve it as a whole. ~~goooo~~

ANSWER - 4

The adverse effect of weakening civil society would be that citizens will ~~experience~~ experience less trust and less social connection which gives political institutions a upper hand to not work effectively. Because people are not willing to participate in face to face associations, this will cause civil society to not work -