

ESSAY OUTLINE

Cooperation not Competition would lead the world towards peace and prosperity

I Introduction

History has witnessed the fact that competition leads to tension and ultimately to war; World can be a center of peace and prosperity through cooperation, not competition.

II Competition has led world towards conflict and adversity

- ① Competition between Germany and Britain for naval supremacy was one of the factors that contribute to second world war
- ② Competition between US and USSR caused cold war.
- ③ Unhealthy competition among political parties leads to chaos in country.
- ④ Competition among great powers led to world war one

III Cooperation leads the world towards peace and prosperity

- ① Cooperation among states through the platform of UN averted third world war
- ② Couple of crisis like the issue of Cyprus and South Sudan was resolved by UN.

③ Mutual cooperation among countries brought prosperity to respective countries.

④ Spread of nuclear weapon was put to stop through states signing NPT, ultimately leading towards peaceful world.

④ Measures that can be taken to make world peaceful and prosperous

① Increasing effectiveness of regional organisations, such as SAARC

② Making UN more effective.

⑤ Conclusion: