

The Role of International Aid: Is it Altruism or Imperialism in disguise for Weakened Nations?

Outline:

1) Introduction:

Thesis Statement:

International Aid often disguises imperialism in weakened nation by exerting economic, political, and cultural influence under the pretext of altruism and development.

2) Understanding the debate of Altruism vs Imperialism.

3) Counter argument

4) Imperialism in disguise for Weakened Nations?

4.1) Economic motivation beneath the surface of altruistic intentions

4.2) Dependency factor behind the Aid

4.3) Political motivation in order to control their internal affairs.

4.4) Cultural influence

5) ~~Dependence~~ Impacts

- 5.1) Dependency on foreign aid
- 5.2) Lack of sustainable development
- 5.3) Erosion of sovereignty and self-determination
- 5.4) Imposition of western norms and values through aid.

6) Way forwards.

- 6.1) Strengthening local capacity
- 6.2) Consideration of effective principles
- 6.3) Advocating for fair trade and economic justice in aid relation.

7) Conclusion