

Suitable Titles

1. Communication with God Through different Persons
2. The Greek's idea of Divine.
3. Communicating to God, The idea of Greeks.
4. The Greek's idiosyncrasy of talking Divine.

Final Draft

(Title with Marker)

The fear human being feel when they compare their ~~minute~~ sense with vastness of nature, create an urge in them to communicate with god as it is the true guide. In Ancient Greece, it was done by oracles, and soothsayer who interprets god's message through nature and pattern of natural events, there were numerous notable soothsayer of Ancient Greece there are, also instance when god, instead of giving signals spoke directly to the oracle. who then entered into 'divine mania' and delivers god's message. Ancient Greeks operated on these practices - giving special sanctuaries to oracles. The Apollo and Zeus. were the soothsayers with who the oracle Delphi and Dodona, used to function respectively.